VOLUME 30, ISSUE 11

Editor's Report

By Tony Hauser

Howdy y'all! It's been awhile since my own byline graced the pages of this proud and long-running periodical. This issue seems like as good a time as any to include it.

Judging by President Steve's message from the November issue, by now we probably have all of the 2021 Board of Directors positions filled. As far as I know, the only person stepping away from the Board next year is Bob Smethers as Communications Director. Steve asked me to step back in again to replace Bob. I preceded Bob in this role, so not too big of a deal for me. The tougher part will be making meetings once those, presumably, begin again next year. Other than that, everyone will be remaining in their current roles on the Board.

Thanks to the quick and efficient work of Kevin Smith, a new link on MSR.com for renewing your TC membership for 2021 is now live: <https://www.motorsportreg.com/events/team-continental-membership-2021-tc-000808>. Page 3 of this issue has the printable version of the application if you prefer to use the USPS to send in your dues (still $45. CHEAP!). You can also print the form off of our website. Membership Director Dennis Roberts asked me to let everyone know that if you send in your application over the next few weeks you might experience a delay in receiving your 2021 membership card, so please be patient.

Now back to the Tell Tale. Some of you may recall when the front page of past Tell Tales included the phrase "I resolve to write one article this year for the Tell Tale" or something along those lines. I believe that the purpose of any club newsletter is to inform, educate, and entertain it's audience. I also believe that these goals are best achieved by the club's own members. Content has dwindled this year. That comes as no surprise since meetings and events have been cancelled. However, I personally resolve to create more content for the TT in 2021 and I am making a plea to all of you to please do the same. It doesn't have to be lengthy or perfect but it would be great to hear how members are doing and keeping themselves busy and entertained. Let's make the Tell Tale Great Again! Sorry, I just couldn't resist.

Editor Tony
