TC May 17, 2023, General Meeting Minutes

Submitted by Secretary Tiffany Neil

Location: Buster's BBQ, Tigard

President Joe Harlan we will be working with Cascade on their Dash for the Vets charity rides event. This should allow TC'ers to come together and help promote TC. Joe is looking into the cost of renting a dunk tank for the event as an additional fundraiser. This will occur on the weekend of August 12th-13th. A motion was passed to use up to $750 to get our logo on Cascade's Dash Event promotional items. On a special note, Ric Farrar actually voted yes...for once.

Joe also brought up the issue of hosting a race in 2024. Discussion ensued.

VP Jeff Menor announced there will be a TC picnic on August 19th in Toledo, WA. Details are forthcoming.

Jon Wilson's reports:

- We have paid for the taco truck for the April event.
- We still have a missing perpetual trophy (Bobby & Steve are still our top suspects).
- We need instructors for our June 27th event at PIR. We will use track time as an incentive.
- Cascade has requested instructors from TC to help with their June 16th event at PIR. They are providing 50% off T-n-T or $100 off a race entry.
- Apologized for not reporting TC member race entries as Contest Board rep.

Denny Roberts reports we currently have 70 paid members.

Jim Larfield thanked Bill Harris and Peggy Walker for their financial support for our April event. We had 7 novice students. Some outstanding invoices still need to be paid, but had a net loss. Jim thanked everyone for going above and beyond to volunteer for our event. In a Boner Jacket moment that was, unfortunately, NOT caught on film, Joe managed to get Jim to help get a car out of the mud in turn five and Jim ended up, shall we say, a bit muddy.

El Presidente Joe Harlan. We're uncertain if he is teching cars here or fundraising for Tina Kotek's gubernatorial re-election campaign in 2026.

Yours truly. Or possibly Joe Biden. We're not sure.

Tasteful attire demonstrated by our models Jon Wilson and Kevin Smith.
