A Message from the Tell Tale Editor

By Editor Tony Hauser

This year, 2023, marks my sixth year as editor of The Tell Tale (February 2018 was my first issue). I really was a little surprised when I started looking back at old issues and realized it has been that long. As they say, time flies when you're having fun and I've always considered being editor, as well as just about everything else I've ever done with Team Continental, very enjoyable.

At this point in time I would like to begin a search for someone to replace me as editor. No, the need is not immediate, however, I would like to see someone else take the reins by January or February at the latest.

I use Microsoft Publisher, which works well and, I think, is pretty easy to use. It usually takes me about half a day to create and electronically distribute each issue. We are down to just five members who receive a printed copy. So, it's not a huge amount of time to dedicate each month towards creating each issue.

Contact me at editor@teamcontinental.com or call me at 503-438-0297 if you're interested.

Sincerely,

Editor Tony
