2026 Board Elections Underway
RSVP for TC Christmas and Banquet Parties

VOLUME 35, ISSUE 12

Thank you to everyone who volunteers

December 2025

President's Message

Submitted by Jim Larfield

Hello TC,

Well Thanksgiving is done and Christmas is upon us which means the TC Christmas party is just a couple of weeks away at Holly Remington's house in Vancouver. Don't forget to bring a gift for the not so politically correct gift exchange.

Also don't forget to vote for the 2026 board members. Vote online on motorsportreg.com or there will be ballots at the Christmas party. Even though all positions are unopposed there is space to write yourself or some deserving soul into any of the positions.

And while I'm at it, get signed up for the banquet in January at the Brix Tavern inside the Century hotel in downtown Tualatin. Special TC room rates are available for the Century if you want to spend the night.

See ya soon,

Jim

2025 Driver of the Year:

_____ Russ Watson - CSCC Nostalgic Series VP1 Class Champion

Gary Pazina Memorial Award

This award honors the member who contributes the most as a Driver Training Worker, and is chosen by the Driving Master.

The award was created in 1988, following the death of worker and racing enthusiast Gary Pazina. Gary, known to his friends as “Pazoots” died in 1988, at the fairly young age of 45. Scott Haun, a good friend of Gary’s, and fellow race worker says, “Zoots started working corners ‘81 or ‘82. Like all things Zoots did in life he excelled at it. One of the best of the best. When Zoots had a thought of how to do something, track-wise or life, it was time to shut up and listen. He was like a big brother/second dad to me. Bunky (Craig Hudson) and he were closer than two brothers.”

Scott continues, “The award was started by then Driving Master Donna Battin. The first recipient was Gary’s life partner Jana Toye.”

Here are the recipients of the trophy since it was first awarded.
