President's Message

Submitted by Jim Larfield

Hello TC,

This will be my final President's message before turning this duty over to the very capable hands of incoming President Kevin Smith. I have once again enjoyed my time in this position but am glad to pass on the torch. I look forward to seeing what vision Kevin has for the club in the future.

I want to thank Peggy Walker for taking on the picnic and the banquet this year and Holly Remington for hosting the Christmas Party. You two have made my term much easier, thanks so much. And thanks to Tony Hauser for being editor of the Tell Tale from far off Georgia. Thanks to Scott Sullivan for taking the minutes and Jon Wilson as VP, asst Treasurer, Trophy Committee Chairman and anything else that needs to be done guy. And finally, Kevin Smith as Communications Director but more importantly stepping up to be President.

Don't forget the banquet is Saturday, January 17th, at the Brix Tavern in Tualatin. If you are not registered, sign up now on MSR or call Peggy Walker directly.

See ya at the banquet,

Jim

December Meeting Minutes

Submitted by Secretary Scott Sullivan

Hi Team Continental members. Happy New Year to all.

We said goodbye to 2025 with our annual Christmas party hosted by Holly Remington. We had almost thirty members attending. The suggested attire for this year was to appropriately wear something red for the holiday. It turns out the only stitch of clothing I had was a red pair of socks with green Christmas trees. Ok, ok, I had on more clothes than that.

The food was great and I saw several go back for seconds, and even third helpings. And yes, the Canadian bacon made its return. Yum! Ham, Turkey and traditional Christmas Hors d'oeuvres were plentiful along with many after dinner sweets. I said I was going in light on the appetite. Oh well, my intentions were well meant. After we all had time to say our "I can't believe I ate all that", we drew numbers for playing the politically incorrect game of Christmas gift under the tree. For those that haven't seen this, well...it can be a little naughty or nice according to Santa. Those that bought a gift were also able to receive a gift. Let me just say that you were either speechless by the lack of "PC" or couldn't stop laughing at some of the presents. It was definitely fun!

Before the end of the party, our outgoing President Jim Larfield announced the result of votes for 2026 Team Continental Board of Directors. Drumroll...

- President- Kevin Smith
- Vice President- Jon Wilson
- Treasurer- Cynthia Wilson
- Communications Director- Peggy Walker
- Secretary- Scott Sullivan
- Driver of the Year- Russ Watson- CSCC Nostalgic Series VP1 Class Champion

Congratulations to all as we look forward to Team Continental 2026.

And remember, next week on Saturday the 17th the Annual Awards Banquet will be held.
