President's Message

Rose Cups were a lot of fun, and TC members (and former members) were there driving, working, spectating and having fun. I was very happy to see so many friends this race weekend.

Starting with drivers, Cindy Lux was running in RC2, as was Dylan Olsen. Blake Williams and Jon Wilson were running in VP2, Russ Watson in VP1, myself in VP3, and Jon Davies in SB2. Cindy, Blake, Russ, and Jon Davies all got 1st in their respective classes, Dylan got a 4th in RC2, Jon Wilson a 5th in VP2, and I broke my clutch in the second qualifying session and didn't make the races.

Many TCers were there working the race. Peggy Walker was registrar and major organizer for the Porsche Cup Races that were back as part of the Rose Cup for the first time in many years. Bob Smethers, Ric Farrar and Bud Mansur were there working hard keeping corners supplied, communicating, and flagging. Gordon Jones was working in Tech. Donna Battin, Holly Remington, and Ally Montgomery were working corners. I saw Bonnie Aarseth, and Teresa Hanken there as well, but not sure if they were working turns or base comm.

Garth Ankeny was there with Trackside taking care of racer's tire needs, and was also the sponsor of the Rose Cup pole award, and got to wave the green flag for the Rose Cup feature race. And Doug Berger was there taking pictures, like the great one top right.

A lot of folks were there spectating or supporting the racers. Steve Adams was crewing for me, and his girlfriend Lynn and my wife Stacey were there lending support. Steve and Michelle Lovejoy were helping Blake Williams out. Cynthia Wilson was out supporting Jon, and Bonnie Watson was out with Russ. Scott Olsen and Noor Al-Khazraji were there crewing for Dylan. Other TCers that were at the races spectating included Jim Larfield, Frank McKinnon, Rob Rissberger, Scott Sullivan, Darren Dilley, Morgan Smith, Tim Jorgensen, Peter Linssen, and Todd & Alisa Cook.

I hope I didn't leave anyone out, but I probably did. Even though my on track results were not great, it was still a great weekend of racing and seeing so many friends.

Next TC meeting is Wednesday August 19th, 6:30PM at Busters BBQ in Tigard. Hope you will make it.
